

Table of Contents

Introduction

Stanley D. Brunn and Marianne Blidon

I - Putting LGBTQ issues on the map

1. Maps of LGBT issues across the globe
Stanley D. Brunn, Donna Gilbreath and Richard Gilbreath
2. Representing the perception of violence in São Paulo, Brazil in mental maps: Queer cartography as a theoretical and methodological approach
Vinicius Santos Almeida
3. Space and identity: Comparing the production of queer spaces in Amsterdam and Hong Kong
Katie Poltz
4. Law and morality: Evolution of LGBT rights in Estonia, Hungary and Poland—from communist past to current reality
Lehte Roots
5. Queerness and performance (un)doing the map: perspectives from the Global South
Kaciano Gadelha
6. Representing the Hijras of South Asia: Toward transregional and global flows
Aniruddha Dutta, Adnan Hossain and Claire Pamment
7. Bench love in Daneshjoo Park: Queering public spaces and pedagogy for the public in Teheran
Jón Ingvar Kjaran and Mohammad Naeimi
8. LGBTQ+ topographies: An analysis of socio-spatial interactions by mapping of social media in São Paulo and Berlin
Maycon Sedrez
9. “The whole neighborhood is becoming gay!” Reflections on the effects of geolocated dating apps on the practice and perception of the urban space of gay men in major French cities
Clément Nicolle with translation by Nicholas Sowels

II - Challenging knowledge production

10. Re-signifying political spatiality and spatial politics of all-gender spaces in New York
Stephanie Bonvissuto
11. Enhancing the erotic as power: Sexuality and pleasure in feminist, lesbian and queer spaces in Rome and Madrid
Giada Bonu
12. Measuring global attitudes toward homosexuality: A critical review of LGBT indexes
Jaime Barrientos and Bladimir González
13. Thinking critically about ‘men who have sex with men’ data collection and use in the global South: Examples from the US President’s Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief
Andrew Tucker

14. Gay men living with HIV in England and Italy in times of undetectability: A life course perspective
Cesare Di Felicianantonio
15. How gay men viewed old gay men when they were young or first came out
Peter B. Robinson and Paul Simpson
16. The changing geography of homosexuality in Santiago de Chile: Is the individual a new space for analysis?
Pablo Astudillo Lizama
17. Dangerous liaisons: Neoliberal tropes of the 'normal' and 'middle-class respectability' in the post-socialist LG(BT) activism
Roberto Kulpa
18. When the city calls: Mapping Indigenous Australian queer placemaking in Sydney
Corrinne T. Sullivan
19. LGBT people in small and medium villages: Spatial analyses of everyday experiences in a Catalan region
Maria Rodó-Zárate

III - Making LGBTQ places and spaces visible

20. Toward a queering of the right to the city: Insights from the tensions in LGBTIQ+ politics in Geneva, the "Capital of Peace"
Karine Duplan
21. Policy makes a family: Croatian LGBTQ movement and the struggle for fostering rights
Natalija Stepanović
22. When the gay village is somewhere else: Reflections on LGBTQ+ public policies in Catalan rural areas
Jose Antonio Langarita, Jordi Mas Grau and Pilar Albertín
23. When a kiss is not just a kiss? Geographies of lesbian and gay intimacy in France
Marianne Blidon
24. Parading for the future: Queer temporalities of pride in an ordinary Israeli city
Gilly Hartal, Adi Moreno and Yossi David
25. A decade of Prague Pride: Mapping origins, seeking meanings, understanding effects
Michal Pitoňák
26. Resisting pinkwashing: Adaptive queerness in Vancouver Pride parades
Andy Holmes
27. On being trans in Norway: Negotiating belonging through and within the (cis)gender imaginary france rose hartline
28. Recognition or othering? Trans*representation in Russian media
Tania Zabolotnaya and Katharina Wiedlack

IV - Resisting oppression and violence

29. The 'S' factor: Feminist and queer movements and the production of safer spaces in urban contexts in Rome and Madrid
Giada Bonu

30. Gender violence and public spaces in France and the United Kingdom: Contributions by trans studies to feminist geographies
Milan Bonté
31. Displaying (trans)gender in space and time: Deconstructing spatial binaries of violence and security in the UK and Portugal
Ana Cristina Marques
32. Out in the country and in the city: Discourses and practices of being out in the Hungarian LGBTQ community
Rita Béres-Deák
33. Limiting queerness: Finding the spatiality and spatial boundaries of LGBTQ+ community centers
Stephanie Bonvissuto
34. Queer Vietnamese youths' manoeuvring and (re)negotiation of filial duties: Becoming the good citizen
Silje Mathisen
35. Resilience in the face of heteronormativity: Experiences of non-heterosexual young women in the family home in Manresa, Catalonia
Júlia Pascual Bordas
36. Lesbian life in a French prison: Surveillance, refuge and self-naming
Natacha Chetcuti-Osorovitz with translation by Sandrine Sanos
37. "It's not about surviving; it's about protecting ourselves": An exploratory field study on male homosexuality in French working-class neighbourhoods
Axel Ravier

V - Building LGBTQ community and perspectives

38. Experiencing double penalty for being gay and Asian in the West: How intersection modifies migration decisions of South Korean gays and lesbians
Marion Gilbert
39. LGBTQ+ choirs, community music, queer artistic citizenship in London
Thomas R. Hilder
40. An emerging world of LGBT stamps:
Stanley D. Brunn
41. The other side of Laugavegur: Past queer spaces in Reykjavik
Ásta Kristín Benediktsdóttir and Jón Ingvar Kjarran
42. Gay inheritance decisions: Family of choice or family of origin
Peter B. Robinson
43. Childhood schools and the ideal citizen: Efforts to support LGBTQ children in Australian schools in the 1980s and 2000s
Scott McKinnon
44. Teaching teenagers about gender norms and sexuality through spatiality in French rurality
Alix Teffo Sanchez
45. Trans mobility across borders: towards an intersectional account of trans diaspora in migration studies
Victor Jorquera, Andrés Di Masso, Marianne Blidon